

DIRECT DEPOSIT AUTHORIZATION FORM

INSTRUCTIONS

The AFTRA Retirement Fund offers automatic electronic deposits. Before your benefits can be electronically deposited, you must complete this form and submit a voided check, savings slip or account confirmation letter from your financial institution. Your direct deposit can only be set up to an account in your name. Please note that this option is only available to residents of the United States or pensioners with a domestic bank account set up in the United States. It is important to note that the AFTRA Retirement Fund does not offer electronic fund transfers into foreign accounts.

If this account is held with a Joint Tenant, the Joint Tenant section of this form must be completed on page 2 and must include the Joint Tenant's signature notarized by a Notary Public.

To begin the process of electing the direct deposit option, you must complete, sign, date and mail the Form to:

DEPOSITORY INFORMATION

This agreement allows your monthly pension benefit payment to be deposited directly into a bank or financial institution of your choice (excluding brokerage accounts). This option ensures that your benefits will be available, automatically, on the first business day of each month. It also offers you security against lost or stolen checks and delays in mail delivery. You must read and complete the required fields below in order for the Fund to review and process this Direct Deposit Authorization Form.

This section must be completed fully and accurately. Check the box that applies. You must provide all required documentation for your Direct Deposit Authorization form to be processed by the Fund.
